

Freeport High School

Art to Art	Tim Connors tim.connors@fsd145.org	Students direct and perform three one-act plays.
Athletics	Brad Pemberton - Athletic Director brad.pemberton@fsd145.org	Improve physical fitness through participation in a variety of sports.
C.H.O.I.C.E.S.	LaFrancine Baker lafrancine.baker@fsd145.org	A club open to any student interested in issues concerning careers, education, and society. Club members participate in workshops, round table discussions, public service projects, college visits, and other exciting activities. C.H.O.I.C.E.S. provides opportunities to students so they will learn how to make appropriate choices that can lead to their success.
Chess	Uli Dornhagen uli.dornhagen@fsd145.org	Join the chess team. We welcome players of any level, no prior knowledge necessary. During practice, we socialize, practice strategies, solve chess puzzles, and play each other. There is also a meet schedule. We typically start practice mid-September, the season goes until mid-February. Look out for posters and announcements around mid-September.
Drama/Spring Play	Tim Connors tim.connors@fsd145.org	Drama Club is designed for students interested in learning more about the aspects of theater. This includes learning stage terminology, working on acting skills, set building, and costumes/makeup design.
E-Sports	Louis Lane louis.lane@fsd145.org	E-sports is a form of competition using video games. Esports often takes the form of organized, multiplayer video game competitions, particularly between professional players, played individually or as teams.
Freeport FFA Chapter	Brittani DeVries brittani.devries@fsd145.org	The FFA Organization helps agriculture students from middle school through college develop leadership skills, provides opportunities for personal growth and fosters future career success.
Gay Straight Alliance Club	Kyli Marshall kyli.marshall@fsd145.org	The FHS GSA meets weekly after school. We socialize, plan events centered on acceptance and tolerance, and create a safe zone for both straight and LGBTQ students to be expressive or seek guidance.
Jazz Band	Bill Petersen bill.petersen@fsd145.org	The Jazz Ensemble performs often throughout the school year for various functions and is best known for being the Jazz Band at The Moonlight Serenade Dance held at Freeport's Masonic Temple Ballroom and as the opening act at Showtime held at The Jeanette Lloyd Theatre. Each year The Jazz Ensemble records a cd of many of the songs that were learned that year and each member of the band takes part in the production process of that cd. In addition, the band regularly performs with renowned professional musicians and has performed in many of the most famous venues in Northwest Illinois.
Jr. MANRRS	Ben Skipor ben.skipor@fsd145.org	MANRRS is to promote academic and professional advancement by empowering minorities in agriculture, natural resources, and related sciences.
Key Club	Whitney Eberle whitney.eberle@fsd145.org	Key Club assists Kiwanis in carrying out its mission to serve God and the community, especially serving the children of the world. Key Clubbers also learn leadership skills by running meetings, planning projects and holding elected leadership positions. Our Clubbers perform acts of service in their communities, such as tutoring students at the Boys & Girls Club of Freeport, cleaning up Rt. 20, and fundraising for individual family and community needs.
National Art Honor Society	Danelle Setterstrom danelle.setterstrom@fsd145.org	The National Art Honor Society (NAHS) is designed specifically for high school students in grades 9-12. In 1978, the National Art Education Association began the National Art Honor Society program to inspire and recognize students who have shown an outstanding ability and interest in art. The NAHS strives to aid members in attaining the highest standards in art scholarship, character, and service, and to bring art education to the attention of the school and community.
National Honor Society	Jena Kleindl jena.kleindl@fsd145.org	This society recognizes those students who have demonstrated superior attainment in the four areas of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. The society holds regular meetings which feature outside speakers and planning for service projects around the school and the community.
NJROTC Team	Michael Dechy	Freeport High School NJROTC sponsors five extra-curricular teams which any cadet enrolled in the michael.dechy@fsd145.org	program can participate in. Teams are Air Rifle Marksmanship (10 Meter air rifle, three position), Athletic Team (push-ups, sit-ups, dodge-ball, tug-of-war, etc.), Academic Team (Multiple choice tests, brain brawl), Drill team (Armed/Unarmed basic and exhibition drill, color guard), and Orienteering (topographic maps, magnetic compasses). In the near future we hope to add a cyber security team (cyber patriot) and underwater robotics team (sea perch).

Prom	Nacia Patterson nacia.patterson@fsd145.org	Organization, planning and preparation for the FHS annual prom. This includes decorating.
S.A.L.T	Brad Pemberton brad.pemberton@fsd145.org	Student Athlete Leadership Team. This team is made up of athletes that undergo an application and selection process.
Scholastic Bowl	Rachel Petty rachel.petty@fsd145.org	Students are asked questions that demand quick recall of facts from all academic areas, as well as general knowledge, current events, sports and the arts. The competition gives students a forum in which to demonstrate their proficiency and to receive recognition.
Servant Leadership	Christy Evans christy.evans@fsd145.org	This group is a member group within the Highland Community College Regional Servant Leadership Program. Its purpose is to encourage and promote compassionate leadership through helping young people see that leaders are also servants. They plan and implement projects.
Showtime	Britney Kieselhorst britney.kieselhorst@fsd145.org	This group of musicians (trumpets, trombones, saxophones, drums, electric guitar, and bass) accompanies the FHS Show Choir for the annual spring "Showtime!" production in the Jeannette Lloyd Theatre. They meet beginning in November on an occasional basis, then weekly in February, and more often in March and April. The band also travels the country with the FHS Show Choir for their annual spring tour, which takes place over spring break.
Speech Team	Tim Connors tim.connors@fsd145.org	Join the award-winning FHS Speech Team as it competes throughout the state of Illinois. You have the opportunity to compete in 14 different IHSA events during the season which consists of at least 7 tournaments. FHS Speech Team not only gives you confidence as a speaker but also the chance to become an Illinois State Speaker. Season runs during the winter from November to February.
Student Council	Haley Kurtz & Jaci Ogden haley.kurtz@fsd145.org jacqueline.ogden@fsd145.org	Promotes the interest and involvement of the student body through sponsorship of social activities for their benefit including the planning of homecoming week events. Serves as a coordinating body between the four classes of this high school. Fulfills goals set by the Student Council aimed at promoting student morale, school spirit, school pride, and the general welfare of the student body. Participates in fundraising projects to raise funds needed to carry out the goals of the Student Council. Promotes community service among its members and the student body.
Students Promoting AVID (SPA)	Christy Evans christy.evans@fsd145.org	SPA is a select group of AVID students who will be ambassadors for the program. The students will work with the AVID Site Team to carry out the mission of the AVID program, which is to enable students to successful college students.
Student Garden	Ben Skipor ben.skipor@fsd145.org	The mission of the Freeport Student Garden is to provide students with a unique opportunity to develop agricultural and career skills through the production, harvest, and sale of locally grown fruits and vegetables.
Thespians	Robert Winter robert.winter@fsd145.org	Thespian Troupe #464 was established in 1948 to recognize students who have done work in theatre. All theatre lovers are welcome: actors, musicians, technicians, and audience members.
Yearbook	Haley Kurtz haley.kurtz@fsd145.org	Students gather information from the entire school year to construct the yearbook.