C.H.O.I.C.E.S.	LaFrancine Baker	A Club open to any student interested in issues concerning careers, education, and society. Club members participate in workshops, round table discussions, public service projects, college visits, and other exciting activities. C.H.O.I.C.E.S. provides opportunities to students so they will learn how to make appropriate choices that can lead to their success.
Chess	Uli Dornhagen	Join the chess team. We welcome players of any level, no prior knowledge necessary. During practice, we socialize, proactive strategies, solve chess puzzles, and play each other. There is also a meet schedule. We typically start practice mid-September, the season goes until mid-February. Look out for posters and announcements around mid-September.
Drama	Tim Connors
F.I.R.S.T.	Uli Dornhagen	F.I.R.S.T. is a non-profit organization working to create a demand for Math & Science learning among today's youth. The team creates remote controlled robots, which are built over a six week period. F.I.R.S.T.'s annual challenge, The Competition, is a national tournament that pits remote-controlled robots against each other in elimination matches.
Freeport FFA Chapter	Brittani DeVries	The FFA Organization helps agriculture students from middle school through college develop leadership skills, provides opportunities for personal growth and fosters future career success.

Gay Straight Alliance Club	Kyli Marshall	The FHS GSA meets weekly after school. We socialize, plan events centered on acceptance and tolerance, and create a safe zone for both straight and LGBTQ students to be expressive or seek guidance.
Jazz Band	Bill Petersen	The Jazz Ensemble performs often throughout the school year for various functions and is best known for being the Jazz Band at The Moonlight Serenade Dance held at Freeport's Masonic Temple Ballroom and as an opening act at Showtime help at The Jeanette Lloyd Theatre. Each year The Jazz Ensemble records a CD of many of the songs that were learned that year and each member of the band takes part in the production process of that CD. In addition, the band regularly performs with renowned professional musicians and has performed in many of the most famous venues in Northwest Illinois.
Key Club	Becky Connors	Key Club assists Kiwanis in carrying out its mission to serve God and the community, especially service to the children of the world. Key Clubbers also learn leadership skills by running meetings, planning projects and holding elected leadership positions. Our clubbers perform acts of service in their communities, such as tutoring students at the Boys & Girls Club of Freeport, cleaning up Rt 20, and fundraising for individual family and community needs.
National Art Honor Society	Whitney Eberle	The national Art Honor Society (NAHS is designed specifically for highschool students in grades 9-12). In 1978, the National Art Education Association began the National Art Honor Society program to inspire and recognize students who have shown an outstanding ability and interest in art. The NAHS strives to aid members in attaining the highest standards in art scholarship, character, and service, and to bring art education to the attention of the school and community.
NJROTC Team	Commander Boettcher	Freeport High School NJROTC sponsors five extra-cirricular teams which any cadet enrolled in the program can participate in.

Principal Advisory Council	Beth Summers	The Principal Advisory Council is a group of students who meet with the principal monthly to ask questions and provide ideas and opinions about things important to students. Students are selected by the high school administration so that all student groups in the school are represented.
Prom	Dina Brobst	Organization, planning and preparation for the FHS annual prom. This include decorating.
Scholastic Bowl	Robert Laird
Servant Leadership	Christy Evans	This group is a member group within the Highland Community College Regional Servant Leadership Program. It's purpose is to encourage and promote compassionate leadership through helping young people see that leaders are also servants. They plan and implement projects.
Showtime Band	Derek Simons	This group of musicians (trumpets, trombones, saxophones, drums, electric guitar, and bass) accompanies the FHS Show Choir for the annual spring "Showtime!" production in the Jeanette Lloyd Theater. They meet beginning in November on an occasional basis, then weekly in February, and more often in March and April. The band also travel the country with the FHS Show Choir for their annual spring tour, which takes place over spring break.
Speech Team	Tim Connors	Join the award winning FHS Speech Team as it competes throughout the state of Illinois. You have the opportunity to compete in 14 different IHSA events during the season which consists of at least 7 tournaments. FHS Speech Team not only gives you confidence as a speaker , but also the chance to become an Illinois State Speaker. Season runs during the winter from November to February.

Student Council	Jaci Ogden & Haley Bunker	Promotes the interest and involvement of the student body through sponsorship of social activities for their benefit including the planning of homecoming week events. Serves as a coordinating body between the four classes of this high school. Fulfills goals set by the Student Council aimed at promoting student morale, school spirit, school pride, and the general welfare of the student body. Participates in fundraising projects to raise funds needed to carry out the goals of the Student Council. Promotes community service among its members and the student body.
Students Promoting AVID (SPA)	Christy Evans	SPA is a select group of AVID Students who will be ambassadors for the program. The students will work with the AVID Site Team to carry out the mission of the AVID program, which is to enable students to become successful college students.
Thespians	Becky Connors	Thespian Troupe #464 was established in 1948 to recognize students who have done work in theatre. All theatre lovers are welcome: actors, musicians, technicians, and audience members.
